Brentano Launches Fall 2016 Cityscape Collection

New collection draws inspiration from the energy and graphics of the urban landscape

Wheeling, IL. (September 2016) — The fall 2016 Cityscape collection captures the urban landscape within a two dimensional textile form. Design Director Iris Wang and the Brentano design studio were inspired by all senses represented within the metropolitan environment – such as the towering skyscrapers, perpetual movement and energetic sounds that pulse throughout any city. The 18 new patterns symbolize society’s kinetic energy while offering a unified balance of residential, hospitality and contract textiles.

Representing the eccentric life of the big city, the new collection includes graphic large-scale patterns (Cityscape and Boulevard) with small-scale coordinates (Metropolis and Boomtown) that push the limit of expected design. Built for high performance contract applications all four patterns offer outstanding wearability, exceeding over 75,000 double rubs (Wyzenbeek, Cotton Duck) and include Incase finishing and acrylic backing for a wide range of applications.

About Brentano:

The Brentano Design studio, led by Iris Wang, celebrated 25 years in 2015. The textile house has grown from a modest eight patterns in 1990 into an international source for polyurethane faux leather, outdoor, Crypton, Nano-Tex and GreenShield-finished, eco-friendly and fire retardant products. The carefully curated line reflects Iris’ lifelong study of fine art, nature and Asian philosophy in beautiful, high-performing solutions for the contract, hospitality, healthcare and residential markets.
