HD Expo Shines Light On Brentano's Bold, Hot Hues

Textile line draws interest with vibrant display of color and pattern

Wheeling, Ill. (June 2017) — Brentano's bold, hot hues hit Las Vegas this year at the 2017 Hospitality Design Expo. The textile line focused on displaying a variety of texture, pattern and color featuring the current spring Ceramic collection and previewing the upcoming fall Grid collection.

The booth highlighted Brentano's dedication to designing indoor/outdoor textiles with the introduction of Pinnacle - an eco-friendly, bleach cleanable and stain resistant upholstery pattern. Joining Pinnacle's intricate ornamentation of color and design, product debuts also included Brentano's unique velvet Pandora and vivacious new pattern Cascade - all to be released this fall.

"The HD Expo is an important experience for Brentano. The positive energy and creative mindset of the show attendees and exhibitors is truly inspiring -- and of course we love seeing how people react to our new product!" Design Director Iris Wang.
