

Romance – Spring 2022 Aura Collection

Affectionately named Aura, Brentano's Spring 2022 Collection launch is inspired by soft edges and natural organic surfaces. The 12 versatile textiles and 3 wallcoverings are a dynamic grouping of soft, pliable, and luxurious selections that are an ode to texture lovers everywhere. Featuring a faux-suede, vegan leather and heavily textured indoor/outdoor boucle, the Collection is a profound grouping of sumptuous fabrics with adaptable performance features to enhance any interior space. It creates dimension and depth with various layers of elevated textiles to construct movement and grace.

Seeking to create a Collection that tapped into one's emotions, Founder and Artistic Director Iris Wang concentrated on the heavy tactile relationship of the fabric to one's inner thoughts and feelings. "I wanted to stress the importance of texture as it relates to one's recollections of a time and place," says Wang. "There is comfort in the physical nature of the patterns but also an emotional connection with how the colors and yarns work together to create a harmonious space."

Showcasing multiple, heavy textures with luxurious physical properties, the Aura Collection exudes comfort with sophisticated patterning and a refined palette. This bespoke collection of fabrics and wallcoverings offers a detailed look into tactile surfaces, revealing how they significantly affect our cognitive emotions as we move throughout our day.

Overall: 85% Vinyl, 6% Cotton, 6% Polyester, 3% Polyurethane

bleach cleanable

A passion project from Founder and Artistic Director Iris Wang, Temae was a labor of love. Iris set forth to create a simple yet organic wallcovering and quickly became fascinated with the little squares in this design. Diligent in her pursuit to find a suitable layout, hours of painting went into developing this piece. During her studies, a calm came over Iris as her mind found peace in the process. This stillness reminded her of a Japanese tea ceremony, which later became the inspiration for the name TE-MA-E, meaning the tea ceremony preparation. Temae is a subtle but visible pattern when viewed up close but becomes more textural from afar. This 54" width 2-color pass wallcovering is a Phthalate-Free, Type II Vinyl with an Osnaburg backing, a handmade look, showcasing the artistry behind each stroke. With nuanced subtlety, hundreds of unique squares combine to create this pattern. In 8 organic colorways like Cardamon and Whistling Kettle, this textural wallcovering is an optimal choice for residential and hospitality interiors.
